Chartered Financial Planner
True Potential
(January 2022 - Present)

CASES RELATING TO _____

- Professional Negligence
- Pensions on Divorce
- Pension Loss (PI, CN and Employment Tribunal)
- Loss of Earnings

MEDICO LEGAL EXPERIENCE: _____

Ms Dawn Slater has over 30 years experience and is skilled in handling complex financial matters. She is currently honing her expertise through Bond Solon Expert Witness training and has experience of the Court via her previous role as a Police Officer.

Her areas of focus include professional negligence, loss of earnings, pensions on divorce, and pension loss arising from personal injury, clinical negligence, and employment tribunals.

Ms Slater accepts Claimant, Defendant, and joint instructions, ensuring a comprehensive and balanced perspective is presented in Court.

FINANCIAL EXPERIENCE: _____

Ms Slater is a professionally qualified Financial Planner with 34 years of experience. She has consistently demonstrated expertise across the vast landscape of investments, pensions, and financial planning. Throughout her career, she has championed the cause of good financial advice in the UK.

During her previous role with the Police, Ms Slater gained valuable firsthand experience with the intricacies of the Court system, sharpening her analytical and communication skills.

Ms Slater holds the G60 pension transfer qualification, a mandatory FCA requirement for advising on pension transfers, including those from occupational schemes. This expertise, coupled with her specific experience in advising on defined benefit pension transfers, positions her as a keen observer of the ongoing pension transfer litigation landscape arising from instances of poor financial advice.

MS DAWN SLATER

CHARTERED
FINANCIAL PLANNER

Ms Slater's unwavering commitment to professional development is evident in her qualifications earned through the Chartered Insurance Institute, further bolstered by her current Statement of Professional Standing. She consistently maintains her extensive pension expertise through ongoing CPD required for Chartered Financial Adviser accreditation.

Ms Slater ran her own IFA business from 2010 to 2022, successfully orchestrating numerous final salary pension scheme transfers.

Currently, Ms Slater thrives as a self-employed financial adviser at True Potential, joining the firm in November 2021. While winding down her IFA practice, Ms Slater actively focuses on developing her Expert Witness business, leveraging her unique skillset to offer valuable insights in legal matters.

Ms Slater's professional journey is distinguished by an unwavering commitment to ethical advice and exemplary service. Her impeccable career record, devoid of any complaints, stands as a testament to her dedication and integrity.
